The Herald 5 Slimline is the ideal choice for those looking for a high-quality, efficient stove which strikes the perfect balance between traditional and contemporary design.

This slimline option offers extensive heat output at a reduced depth, whilst maintaining the large viewing window and superb controllability of the Herald 5.

As with the Herald 5, this slimline wood burning stove offers an internal riddling de-ashing grate and ashpan as standard – a feature our customers love!

This modern yet traditional woodburning stove will be a prominent feature in any setting and can be either installed into a fireplace opening or placed freestanding against a wall.
