Complete your living space with the iLektro 1650.

The 1650 Landscape Electric Fire is a stunning and impressive choice for your home. The abundance of wood effect logs adds a realistic touch to the fireplace, enhancing the overall look. Its non reflective back panel minimises glare and distractions, allowing you to full enjoy the flames.

With single-sided, double-sided, and triple-sided glass layout options included in every professionally packed iLektro fireplace kit, this range offers you the flexibility to express your style and create the perfect focal point for your room. The display can be used with or without distributing heat, allowing you to create a firelight ambience even on a warm summer's evening.
